Dear colleagues!
It is our pleasure to invite you to the 3rd International Bibliographic Virtual Congress,
April, 27–29, 2021

Registration and Paper Submission

To participate in the Congress it is necessary to register and submit your abstract in Russian / English at the site https://www.bibcongress.ru. Abstracts will be published in electronic format only before the congress.

Vendors:

• The Russian Library Association (RLA)

• The State Public Scientific and Technological Library of the Siberian Branch of the Russian Academy of Sciences (Novosibirsk, Russia)

• The National Library of Russia (Saint Petersburg, Russia)

• The Russian State Library (Moscow, Russia)

• The State Public Scientific and Technological Library of Russia (Moscow, Russia)

Languages: Russian, English.

The general topic of the congress – Bibliographic Information in Digital Culture.

The main topics of the congress:

The transformation of bibliography in the digital age. The role of bibliographic information in the changing system of scholarly communications.

Strategies for the development of bibliographic activities at the international level. Bibliographic resources sharing.

Coordination and cooperation of bibliographic activities at international and national levels.

The present forming, distribution and promotion of bibliographic information. Forms and formats of presenting bibliographic data in the Web and in electronic information systems.

Development and implementation of new international and domestic norms of bibliographic description.

Bibliographic description of local and remote access electronic resources. Modern resources of the national bibliography. Improving the legal deposit legislation (the deposit of online digital resources).

Corporate cataloging as a form of bibliographic interaction of libraries.

Bibliometric information in open science.

Linguistic aspects of metadata presentation on the Web: semantic web, subject gates.

Normative support of bibliographic activities at the present stage.

Models for functional requirements to bibliographic and authority records.

Bibliographic information for users: products and services.

The quality of bibliographic information: evaluation criteria.

Competences of a bibliographer: training, retraining, advanced training.

Local bibliography in the digital age.

The history of bibliography in Siberia.

Important dates:

15 March – the deadline for proposals

31 March – notification of acceptance

26 April – deadline for registration without papers

The coordinators:

Olga Lvovna Lavrik – doctor of pedagogical sciences, professor, SPSTL SB RAS, Russia, Novosibirsk.

e-mail: lavrik@spsl.nsc.ru; tel. +7 (383) 373-06-31

Natalia Konstantinovna Lelikova – doctor of historical sciences, the National Library of Russia, Russia, Saint Petersburg, the head of RLA section on bibliography and information and bibliographic services.

e-mail: nklelikova@ya.ru